Magnitude scale. The moment magnitude Mww is computed from the W-phase. Body-wave magnitude mb is used for smaller events.

Depth. Earthquake depth is reported in kilometers below the surface. Deep events occur below 300 km in subduction zones.